RICHARD SWITZER
RE-APPOINTED
DEAN, HUMANITIES

P. Richard Switzer has been re-appointed to the position of Dean of the School of Humanities for a third term, President John M. Pfau has announced.

Dean Switzer, who joined the College in September, 1970, as Professor and Chairman of the Division of Humanities, before the division was formed as a school in September, 1972, will continue with the dean's duties for a third straight term, effective September 1, 1976.

Recognized as one of the foremost American authorities on the French romanticist, Chateaubriand, Dr. Switzer has written five books and numerous articles on the great 18th century author. His publications include 13 books and 26 articles, mainly dealing with 18th and 19th century French literature.

Dr. Switzer currently is consulting editor for the review 19th Century Studies, a member of the executive board of the Modern and Classical Language Assn. of Southern California and editor of the journal Forum.

FACULTY SABBATICAL
LEAVES FOR 1976-77
ARE ANNOUNCED

Four faculty members have been granted sabbatical leaves in the 1976-77 academic year.

Peter Schroeder, Associate Professor, English, will devote the Fall and Winter terms to writing fiction and researching old English poetry, part of the time in England, where some of his research will be at the British Museum in London.

Les Herold, Associate Professor, Psychology, has been granted leave for the Fall Quarter, which he will spend writing a college text dealing with research methods for psychology, "Methods for a Science of Behavior and Experience," scheduled for publication in 1977 by the Wadsworth Publishing Co., Belmont, Ca.

The Winter and Spring quarters will be used by F.F. Liu, Associate Professor, Physics, to study the latest trends in computers and their application, through research at the UCLA Computer Science Dept., Stanford Linear Accelerator Center and Fermi National Laboratories in Batavia, Ill.

Elliott Barkan, Associate Professor, History, will spend the Fall and Winter quarters of next year completing the manuscript of his book, "The Price of Equality: A Comparative Analysis of the American Ethnic Experience," to be published by Prentice-Hall in 1978.

CENTRALIZED PAYROLL SYSTEM TO BE IN EFFECT JAN. 23

In accordance with a new centralized system for documenting and processing certain basic personnel and payroll actions for all State agencies, a new system, known as

PIMS, will go into effect on the CSCSB campus on January 23.

The new system will alleviate problems encountered by the increasing complexity of the information required to document personnel transactions and the inefficiency and increasing cost of maintaining duplicate personnel and payroll information in various State agencies.

All payroll changes which are to effect the January pay period must reach the Payroll Office by 4:30 p.m., Monday, January 19.

AMENDMENT TO TITLE IX
PROHIBITS DISCRIMINATION

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, and the administrative regulations adopted by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare pursuant thereto, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, in education programs and activities operated by California State College, San Bernardino.

Such programs and activities include admission of students and recruitment and retention of employees. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX to programs and activities of the College may be referred to James D. Thomas, Dean of Academic Administration, or Oscar Jackson, Personnel Officer who have been assigned the administrative responsibility of reviewing such matters.

Dr. Thomas states that "To the best of our knowledge CSCSB is in full compliance with the non-discrimination requirements of Title IX. However, beginning in February we will be conducting a self-study as required under the new regulations."

ARDEN WEINY
MEMORIAL
ESTABLISHED

A memorial for Arden Weiny, late son of George Weiny, Professor of P.E. and Recreation, has been established by the San Bernardino YMCA Swim Club.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the memorial may do so by contacting the "Y", 808 E. 21st St., San Bernardino.

The "Y" Swim Club was chosen as the administrator of the memorial fund because of the many years of participation in that organization by Arden and the Weiny family.

NOON BICENTENNIAL PROGRAM
OPENS CSCSB CELEBRATION

Music composed in 1875 for America's centennial celebration will open Cal State's bicentennial program, Wednesday noon, January 21. The College and the public are invited to hear four visiting artists in FA-104.

E. Mack's "Grand Centennial March" will be played by pianist-composer Jack Behrens. One of his selections, "City Life," will be sung by Irene Gubrud, who has appeared with symphonies, world-wide, and will premiere with the New York Philharmonic in May. She will be accompanied by pianist Sonja Behrens, who has performed throughout the U.S. and Canada. Miss Behrens will play "Ballad, Op. 6," by Mrs. H.H.H. Beach and will be heard with clarinetist Diane Bryan in Bernstein's "Sonata for Clarinet and Piano." Miss Bryan was soloist with the Salvador Symphony in Central America in 1968.
